ENCHANTED

DIRECTOR Kevin Lima

STARRING Amy Adams, Patrick Dempsey, James Marsden, Timothy Spall, Susan Sarandon

A Disney princess has to cope with life in the real world in this fairytale with a twist. Giselle (Amy Adams) is set to marry handsome-but-dim Prince Edward (James Marsden) but his jealous stepmother Queen Narissa (Susan Sarandon) realises this will threaten her crown, so she pushes the bride-to-be down a well...

Giselle is flung into modern-day New York City, a terrifying place for a princess who's used to breaking into song in the company of friendly woodland creatures. She finds an ally in charming-but-flawed lawyer Robert (Grey's Anatomy star Patrick Dempsey), although he's convinced she's crazy.

Meanwhile, Prince Edward sets out on a rescue mission, but will he reach Giselle before Queen Narissa's nasty henchman Nathaniel (Timothy Spall)?

With handsome princes, poison apples, curses and true love's kisses, Enchanted is packed full of the quintessential fairytale ingredients.

Paying tribute to classics such as

Snow White And The Seven Dwarves, Beauty And The Beast, Cinderella and Sleeping Beauty, it's the first feature-length Disney film to blend animation with live-action since Who Framed Roger Rabbit? and offers an intelligent, hilarious take on the fairytale formula.
